Advertising Promotional Financing

Easily incorporate Synchrony financing into your existing marketing plan to help drive more customers to your business.

Build a successful marketing campaign

Make sure your customers instantly know you offer special financing options on the products and services they want by:

Spreading awareness of financing options, which can lead to larger average tickets and help encourage add-on purchases.

Promoting financing and featuring specific promotions you currently offer through direct mail, emails and websites.

Tracking results of how sales and average purchase amounts increase for a promotional period and using the metrics to evaluate your marketing program and tweak promotional offerings based on the results to increase sales.

Marketing strategies to consider

- Offer time-sensitive promotions, including limited-time seasonal promotions or holiday deals.
- Offer deferred or lower interest rates for a short period of time, creating a sense of urgency. It encourages customers to make a purchase they may have been considering for a while.

Train your sales team

Your staff is crucial to your success because they interact with customers every day. It's important that they receive in-depth training so they're able to:

- Identify opportunity.
- Present financing options.
- Explain how the financing programs work.
- Address common questions and concerns.

Add Synchrony Financing to Your

Website Integration

How to create a financing page for your website

As you create your financing page, include headlines and subheadlines related to financing. This is important for SEO optimization and to quickly direct customers to the right page.

- Example headline: Convenient Financing Options Available.*
- Example subheadline: Pay over time for your home project.*

Note: We recommend using words specific to your services in place of “home project.”

Include card art and content explaining the Synchrony credit card benefits alongside an “Apply Now” button.

Showcase specific financing offers further down the page to remind users of payment flexibility.

78%

of consumers researched financing online through retailer websites*

Legally approved advertising language is provided within the Advertising—Quick Reference section.

For the website integration demo site, click here.

Example is for illustration only.

Digital Applications

Give your customers the ability to quickly and easily apply online for credit. If approved, most customers have immediate access to their new credit limit.

Online Consumer Application (OCA)

Uses universal Synchrony Merchant ID (MID) on a Synchrony-managed page.

Benefits

- You can easily create an apply link and/or QR code for your social media, website or other marketing collateral linking to your online Synchrony application.
- Self-Serve Market Asset Repository, with ability for merchants to quickly create customized QR code and marketing assets to promote online Synchrony application.
- Online application is managed and hosted by Synchrony—no coding needed from the merchant.
- OCA link will allow applications on a single store/location MID.

How it works

1. Go to synchronybusiness.com/mmc-assets.html.
2. Enter your MID.
3. Use the URL to promote credit card application submission on your website, on social media, in emails, in print pieces and on other digital channels, OR
4. Simply download the QR code in your preferred image format and add it to your marketing collateral. When customers scan the code, it will lead them directly to your custom page with links to prequalify and apply.
